DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 11, 13, 16, 17, 18,19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Harvey.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

Claims 11, 13, 16, 17, 18, 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Harvey in view of Hodges. The patent to Harvey teaches structure substantially as claimed including a fixture for forming unit loads to be received on two or more loading ledges, which unit loads after forming are lifted from the fixture together with the loading ledges, wherein the fixture is to receive the loading ledges and the fixture has means to adapt the positions of the loading ledges depending on the size and form of the unit loads to be formed, the fixture has an approximate rectangular frame, formed of at least two parallel long struts(11) and at least two parallel short struts (12) at the end of the long struts, a further number of intermediate (12) short struts are arranged between the long struts, transversal bars are arranged moveable on the long struts, with the ends of each transversal bar on each long strut, locking means, the only difference being that cups are not adjustably mounted on the bars. However, the patent to Hodges (30) teaches the use of providing cups to be old. It would have been obvious and well within the level of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention was made to modify the structure of Harvey to include adjustable cups since such structures are conventional alternative structures used in the same intended purpose, thereby providing structure as claimed.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 07/22/08 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
